

Suits-The Practical Kind AND AT POPULAR PRICES

NEVER WERE SUITS so popular as this season for every kind of wear; and never have such a variety been shown to choose from. At present the jersey is far the more popular, for it meets the demand of a medium weight suit and comes in the brighter colors. For the more conservative we are able to show a big range of cloth suits, many of which are serge.

New Blouses

Two big lots of these latest style and colors, just received—Georgettes, in pearl grey, maize, Helio, old rose, white, Nile and dozens of other combinations; many of them embroidered, also tub rills in plain colors and stripes. PRICED, $4.50 TO $10.00.

New Skirts

Of the plain poplins and serges, both blue and black, also taffeta skirts in the new sport stripes and plaids, gathered waist and most are with the big pockets, many black taffetas to choose from. PRICED $1.50 TO $25.00.

SENATE PROPOSES BETTER CRIME DETENTION

Slander and Libel Bill
Also Approved for Passage—Sunday
Opening O.K.'d

Seven bills were considered in the Senate this morning, three of which were recommended for passage, three were recommended to various committees until further data could be obtained and one was recommended to be laid on the table until further reason for not doing so could be supplied. The three following bills were recommended for passage: A bill making libel and slander a misdemeanor in the Territory and providing penalty therefor; relating to care of indigent employees; and providing a fund for detection of crime in the Territory.

The bill relating to insurance companies was laid on the table indefinitely. Bills relating to the establishment of a Bureau of Agriculture, the printing of Territorial reports and authorizing justices of the peace to instruct juries, were recommended to committees.

The uniform school bill was discussed section by section and placed on the calendar for the first order of business tomorrow morning.

The two following bills passed by the Senate late Saturday afternoon: An act regulating the method of choosing jurors in criminal and civil causes in the District Court, and making it lawful on the first day of the week, Sunday, to keep open billiard rooms and other places of recreation and amusement.

This afternoon the House Memorial pertaining to the posting of fish market quotations was returned by the Senate with a recommendation for passage. House Bill providing for the regulation and practice of medicine and surgery was recommended for passage, following a short explanation by Dr. H. C. DeVighe of the purpose and intent of the bill. Senate bill providing for the formation of co-operative associations in the Territory of Alaska, was returned to the Senate with a recommendation for passage.

Upon request, Judge Gunnison spoke before the committee in behalf of the uniform laws as drawn and submitted by the National Commission on uniform laws, and explained briefly the formalities which were followed before the adoption of such a law. Following Judge Gunnison's talk, the bills referring to uniform laws were read before the committee.

SCHOOL BILL IS ABSORBING TOPIC OF LEGISLATORS

House Is Meeting in a Committee of Whole on Measure—Bills Are Urged To Pass.

The time of the Territorial House this morning was taken up in a discussion as to whether to pay municipalities sixty or seventy-five per cent of the school expenses. The House reported five bills for passage, indefinitely postponed one and passed two memorials.

House bill raising the salary of the Attorney-General was favorably reported; House bill allowing the Treasurer and Governor $1,000 each yearly for services as members of the banking board was reported favorably, and House Bill providing for the stocking of the islands in Prince William Sound with deer was reported favorably.

The Senate bill for the establishment of the agricultural school at Fairbanks was reported and will take its regular place. The committee was evenly divided, four of them favoring a referendum vote in 1918, the balance making no recommendation.

The Senate bill providing for a bounty on eagles was returned to the House with the notation of the committee that the House had already passed a bill providing for the bounty.

The Senate bill relating to the regulation of the practice of dentistry was indefinitely postponed; joint memorial asking for the construction of a post road from Nome to Candle was passed, as was also the memorial asking for roads in the Third Division. The remainder of the session was spent in a committee of the whole over the school bill.

Discussion of the school appropriation bill which was started this morning was continued in the House this afternoon and upon motion of Representative SNOW the Committee substitute, which provides that 60 per cent of the school funds be provided by the Territory, was voted for unanimously and referred to the Engrossment committee for engrossment and enrollment.
